Spinnings for June 24, 201

Future Events: We plan on attending the future for some time to come.

In the beginning,

The meeting was called to order by past Prez Shawn DeLuna.

The Pledge was led by Carol Groome.

The Invocation was given by Bill Kenny.

No Song today.

The assembled crowd wore hats to honor Prez Peter's predilection for protection from the sun, a theme that ran through the rest of the meeting. The outgoing Prez couldn't be said to appear nervous, although he was dressed in easily washed surgical scrubs, just in case.

Sunshine

"All clear", quoth Bob Whitehill

Visiting Rotarians by Steve Aker

Hans from Foster City showed up for the merriment.

Rotarians with Guests:

Kelvin and (insert correct name here) Chan (no relation) introduced by David Lim .

Susan Manheimer introduced Robert Ross, newly elected to City Council.

Erin Murray by Steve; her dad is coming back to club

Lane Duck Prez Peter introduced his wife Pam who got a bouquet flowers for ~~putting up~~
~~with~~ all her support this last year.

The Program

Anne LeClair and her Merry Pranksters first gave us a little slide who in which Prez Peter's secret double life was revealed. Suffice it to say that large hats and true love were involved.

This was followed by a series of skits in which Prez Peter's professional life was explored. The skits were technically g-rated, but some highlights included even more big hats, graphic zit squeezing, necrotic tissue, boils, blisters and warts. After lunch this was.

The Merry Pranksters were:

Barbara Evers, Bob Moorehead, Michael Berube, Jeff Lowenstein, Lynn Armenio, Kitty Lopez, and Kent Mickelson.

Plaques and Pins

No farewell ceremony would be complete without the ceremonial Presentation O' The Plaque, and we were not disappointed.

Past Prez Shawn also gave Peter a Rotary wine decanter, matching wine glasses, and a bottle of wine with which to beak them in. (2005 Joel Gott cab sav)

At this point things really got lively; Incoming Prez Linda Asbury was brought forward and Prez Peter pinned the Club President pin on her.

Not to be outdone, Linda then pinned the Prez Elect pin on Kitty Lopez.

Finally, Shawn DeLuna brought the house down by pinning the Past Prez pin on Peter (try saying THAT five times rapidly)

The meeting ended with a richly deserved “standing O” for Peter Webb.
