Dapper Franks Espina and Baldanzi were inducted into the Presidents Club Lance Huntley, Larry Atkinson, and Michael Berube were also inducted in recognition of the latter two's support of the arts in San Mateo and the former's gratitude for such.

The Program

District Governor Bill Koefoed was introduced by Foster City Rotarian and Assistant DG Bill Chow.

Before he began his talk, DG Koefoed presented us a book about the history of SF 2 (and thus of the district). Too bad we didn't have a Rotarian magazine to give back to him.

We learned some interesting facts: ours is the 2nd largest club in the district 9and growing!)

Our district has contributed 4 RI presidents and is the oldest district in rotary

A polished speaker:--his Dale Carnegie background shown through--he then spoke about vitality of attitude and announced that he didn't want Michael Berube's tights. What he meant was that it's important to want what you have.

He also threw out five challenges for this year:

- 1) protect Rotary
- 2) support Rotary--bring new members
- 3) donate to the Foundation
- 4) celebrate the Rotary Foundation event Nov 7 "Putting on the Ritz"
- 5) District Conference in April SSF one day only! No massive time obligation!

In closing he reminded us that Commitment is the Triumph of Integrity over Skepticism
