Future Events: Run 2nd Annual 5k/10k Rotary on Sept19. Runners and Volunteers are solicited.

In the beginning,

Pledge: Rod Dowiat guided our hands to our hearts

Thought : June Lamb read a moving thought of the day.

Newscast: Chuck Pascal enlightened us with the following: on this date John Dillenger shot dead in 1934 and gas rationing began in 1942

He asked three tables to guess the year of Lindburg flight; (turned out to be 1927). He left us with the charming thought that in the hard times in which we live, remember that if the world didn't suck we'd all fall off.

Sunshine

Bob Whitehill pointed out the sympathy card for Carol and Martin Harband.

Visiting Rotarians

Dennis Thomas announced the following guests:

Dave Culver from Pleasanton and Jan Partin & Cynthia Rapaidu, both from Foster City

Rotarians With Guests

There were indeed Rotarians with guests, but the sign up sheet didn't make it back to the registration table, so the names of those worthies are lost to the world.

Mass badge-in Tom Thompson, Dolly Herbert, Jay Creighton, Peter Sortwell were all given their real Rotary badges. Jim Murray should have received one, and no doubt will.

Announcements

Tice Fields presented Rotary flags that he picked up at various Club meetings he attended while in Hawaii. At his first meeting we was only guy wearing socks and set up his own projector at another meeting of a fledgling club. He spoke about the Child Aids Prevention Project. With a goal of eliminating pediatric AIDS in Africa, the project is designed to encourage Rotarians to work together to raise funds for education and training, HIV testing , counseling and life-saving drugs.

President's Club

Susan Manheimer: was harassed because she didn't go to any makeup meetings and cheerfully joined the club..

Chris Lundquist joined the club for having the temerity to visit France and Croatia.

Clarke Funkhouser joined for having participated in the Alpine County Chamber o' Commerce charity Death Ride. San Mateo Chamber Exec Linda Asbury is contemplating a similar event for our fair city.

Fines and Recognitions

There were fines for Steve Way having witnessed extreme multi tasking by Ed Phillips.

Pres Linda observed that club members were clumped in same gender tables and administered diversity fines to the malfeasants.

Don Leydig: "Where is Lynn Armenio?" " Showing Don's family homes, that's where.

Barbara Evers snitched on Michael Berube multitasking on his cell phone during the meeting

The Program

Carole Groom intro'd the day's speaker, San Mateo Chief of Police Susan Manheimer who is not unfamiliar with the club. Manheimer was extolled for the many things she has done for the won, including upgrading Community policing, and brining back PAL. She referred to Manheimer 's role as the President of the California State Association of Chiefs of Police by say she was the Capo de capos. This writer thinks she might be the copo de cops.

Susan got our hopes up by stating she would be talking about dope, guns, prisoners, rock and roll. She also expressed a little frustration that the public has little knowledge about policing out except what the get from dumb movies and tv shows.

In her capacity of capo de cops, She discussed Prop 19, the legalize pot initiative (very much against it) and Prop 22 no more state raids on local funds (very much for it).

Addressing prisoner overcrowding, she observed that the state wants to give prisoners back to us; but there's no room here, either.

The Chief also is the proud owner of 6 of Arnold Schwarzenegger's cigars, alleging he gave them to her.

Chris Lundquist wanted to know if it will be legal to drive high on marijuana. No one asked why he'd want to know.
